

Conduct and Dress Code Agreement

Youth Ablaze, a ministry established to challenge young people to grow closer to Christ while equipping them to make Him known here and abroad, understands the need for regulations regarding behavior and dress. This ensures that the testimony of our faith will not be compromised by our actions or by the way we dress.

Please read and decide if you are willing to abide by these codes. Remember, if for any reason you choose to disregard these regulations, Youth Ablaze has the right to discipline and/or remove you from the mission team and field at your, and/or your parents', expense. Please understand, by signing this agreement you and your parents agree to abide by these regulations and failure to follow them may lead to dismissal at your, or your parents', expense.

CLOTHING

Girls: Knee Length shorts or Capri's (or whatever is appropriate for the country you are going to)
Knee or floor length skirts—the length will be determined by the countries values
T-shirts with short sleeves (rolled-up sleeves are unacceptable)
Absolutely NO belly shirts—shirts that will be accepted are determined by the following test:
 If you raise your arms or squat, no skin should show
No T-shirts with logos, including references to the USA
No low or plunging necklines
No shear shirts
No hip hugger pants—again, if you squat or raise your hands no skin should be showing
Bringing attention to undergarments is prohibited

Boys: Knee Length shorts or pants
T-shirts with short sleeves (rolled-up sleeves are unacceptable)
No T-shirts with logos, including references to the USA
Pants should be at the waist and held up with a belt if necessary
No boxer shorts showing
Bringing attention to undergarments is prohibited

CONDUCT

- People of opposite genders will NEVER be in sleeping areas together throughout the entire trip excluding team meetings and debriefing times when leaders are present
- Use of alcoholic beverages or drugs is strictly prohibited
- Sexual immorality, including fornication, adultery, homosexuality or premarital sex, is forbidden
- Open rebellion or disrespect to authority will not be tolerated
- Any behavior that brings division within the team will not be tolerated
- Every missionary will participate in quiet times and complete all assignments
- Dating is strictly prohibited during your mission trip
- You are never permitted to leave the group by yourself—this will result in immediate dismissal from the trip

We, my parents and I, have read these guidelines, asked any questions and fully understand what is expected from my behavior and dress. We agree to these guidelines and understand that breaking one may result in my being removed from the team and the mission field at our financial expense.
